

Do You Know About the DELE Diplomas?

The DELE (Diplomas of Spanish as a Foreign Language) are official certifications that validate an individual's competence and mastery of the Spanish language. They are issued by the Instituto Cervantes on behalf of the Ministry of Education and Professional Training of Spain.

DELE level A1 certifies sufficient linguistic competence to understand and use everyday expressions frequently used in the Spanish-speaking world, aimed at meeting immediate needs.

DELE level A2 certifies the ability to understand commonly used phrases and expressions related to areas of immediate relevance (e.g., basic personal and family information, shopping, local geography, and employment).

DELE level B1 certifies sufficient linguistic competence to understand and respond appropriately to the most common situations in daily life and to express basic needs and desires.

DELE level B2 certifies the ability to manage communication in everyday situations with fluency and without requiring specialized language use.

DELE level C1 certifies advanced linguistic competence, enabling clear and flexible expression without significant restrictions. The candidate has a wide vocabulary, including idiomatic and colloquial expressions.

DELE level C2 certifies mastery of the Spanish language, suitable for complex communication scenarios requiring an advanced understanding of cultural nuances and linguistic subtleties.

DELE school exams are tailored for students aged 11 to 18 (those over 18 must register for the general exams), regardless of their nationality or background. Parents, guardians, or legal representatives must handle the registration of minors..

Exam DELE A1 school is recommended for middle school students

Exam DELE A2/B1 school is recommended for high school students
